

Zoomba into Sustainability!

Campus Sustainability Month 2024

Thursday, October 3 and Tuesdays, October 15 and 22

Tree Plantings, all from 1 - 2:15 p.m.

Fall is tree planting season, and what is more sustainable than a beautiful tree? Volunteers will join in the planting of multiple trees. Your impact will serve to sequester carbon and produce oxygen for years to come at BGSU. Supplies will be provided. Signup on BGSU serves required, locations will be provided.

Wednesday, October 9

Sustainability Trivia Night, Education 201, from 6 - 7:30 p.m.

Join us for a fun and informative evening of trivia focused on waste reduction and sustainability! Test your knowledge and compete for prizes while learning about waste in our country and on our planet.

Saturdays, October 12 and 19

Green Game Day, Multiple Shifts Available

Join us at the football games! Volunteers will drive golf carts, interact with the BGSU community and help distribute recycling bags, as well as picking up full bags. Reduce waste, increase recycling, and have fun! Signup for shifts required on BGSU serves.

Sunday, October 13

Fall Colors Bike Tour on Slippery Elm Trail, from 1 - 4 p.m.

Tag along with us and members of Outdoor Adventure Club for a Group Bike Ride! Bring your own bike as we appreciate the ecosystems of the area and immerse ourselves in nature. Meet at the BGSU Bike Garage, RSVP on SignUpGenius at the QR Code!

Monday, October 14

Award Winning Film: Single-Use Planet, Olscamp 115, from 7 - 8:30 p.m.

Plastic is vital in so many ways to our modern way of life and well-being — but not all forms of it. Single use/disposable plastics are choking our oceans and waterways and have become an environmental disaster. The documentary Single-Use Planet explores the connections of these environmental and public health impacts, plastics production, and industry influence on government policy. Free snacks, and a discussion will follow the film!

Thursday, October 24

Campus ReStore Event, McDonald Hall Annex, from 12 - 2 p.m.

The ReStore is ready for harvest! Regular rules apply: BGSU ID required, one reasonably sized reusable bag. Bring your own bag, please! Register as a store volunteer on BGSU serves.

Friday, October 25 and Saturday, October 26

Camping at Oak Openings Preserve

Join us at the Oak Openings Preserve for a campout on the night of Friday, October 25th! We will be enjoying each other's company and s'mores around a fire! The next morning, we will be volunteering with the Metroparks staff from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. Registration on BGSU serves is required for this overnight trip; bring your own camping gear.

Wednesday, October 30

Guest Seminar: How Culture Shapes the Climate Change Debate Central Hall 110, from 4 - 5 p.m.

Dr. Andrew Hoffman explores the intersection of social & scientific in the fight against climate change. His dynamic presentation will provide actionable steps that people of all academic disciplines can use to take climate action! Dr. Hoffman is a Professor of Sustainable Enterprise at the University of Michigan and is an author of 100+ articles and 18 books that tackle climate change from a multi-faceted approach.
