In 500 words or less, please describe why this person deserve recognition for the "Spirit of BG" Award:

It is my pleasure to nominate Jodi Schroeder for the January Classified Staff Spirit of Award. Jodi is a consummate team member of the athletic department staff. She displays a sincere interest in assisting athletic department staff members in any way to be successful. Her acumen as a budget coordinator allows her to excel in her position with a high level of success. Not only is her service outstanding our internal BGSU constituents, she displays this same genuine desire to solve problems with all external clients she encounters. Whether this task is onboarding new vendors, meeting one-on-on with a staff to help understand University business processes, or successfully fulfilling an urgent task, her can do attitude and resiliency shines.

In the fast-paced world of Intercollegiate Athletics, Jodi has the Falcon Spirit that deserves the recognition she has earned.
