It is with great pleasure that I nominate Tracy DeFazio for the Spirit of BG Award in recognition of her exceptional dedication and support to students, faculty, and staff at BGSU. Tracy stands out as an individual whose interactions are characterized by an unparalleled level of grace and compassion, fostering a sense of caring and belonging in our campus community.

Tracy's commitment to delivering support goes beyond the call of duty, and her impact on the well-being of those around her is truly remarkable. Her ability to move through interactions with grace creates an environment where individuals feel seen, heard, and valued. Tracy has a unique gift for making everyone she encounters feel a deep sense of connection and inclusivity.

In addition to her empathetic approach, Tracy consistently demonstrates a high level of stability and effectiveness in her role. She has proven herself to be a reliable and consistent employee, mastering administrative processes with ease. Tracy's contributions have played a pivotal role in creating a positive and supportive atmosphere at BGSU Firelands, contributing significantly to the overall well-being of the college community.

In conclusion, Tracy DeFazio embodies the spirit of BGSU through her exceptional dedication, grace, and compassion. I believe her unwavering commitment to fostering a sense of belonging makes her an outstanding candidate for the Spirit of BG Award.
